invaluable S. REAPARILLA I feel it my duty, likewise a pleasure, to inform you of the astonishing effect it had, under the blessing of Divine Providence, in restoring me to be lith, after a long and afflicting illness. I was a . ufforer from the Fever and Ague for nearly two years, which reduced me to a perfect skeleton; my throat was ulcerated, and, from the accumulation of phiegm, I was in constant dread of suff-cation : I had so appetite, nor could I swallow any thing but liquids and only a few drops at a use. In September, 1838, I began to sink rapidly, and, although every thing was done for me that the mind of the most skilful physicians could surgest, I found no relief; my case was considered hopeless, and I heard from them that a few hours must terminate my sufferings. By some providential circumstance, your Sarsuparilla was mentioned; my friends endeavored to obtain some, but could not without sending to you (a distance of over 300 m les,) at Buffalo, which they did, and in the beginning of October ammerced taking it; and from that time I began to revive and increase in strength sufficiently to go to the village of Ann Arbor the first week in November. Lust year I went to England, and wishing for my own satisfaction to ascertain the qualties of your Eursaparille, I was much gratified in showing a part of a bottle I had by me for nearly two years to an eminent and skilful chemist, who pronounced it a genuine and good article; it was perfectly sweet, and retained every quality. Should any in your neighborhood be suffering as I was, you may urge them to a trial of your medicine; or should your Agents in this city wish any reference, they can, by calling on me, or sending any patients to me, ascertain the benefits I have With respect, sir, I remain your obedient servant.
